A letter from the Executive Director

After 5 months of substantial remodeling our Lyric and not having any shows, we are REALLY ready to get back to business. We have a great lineup this season with a slew of major artists including Clint Black, Regis Philbin, Alvin Ailey II dance company, Savion Glover, Vince Gill, and Arlo Guthrie just to name a few along with our annual stars such as Peter White, Sarge, and of course The Bronx Wanderers. We'll also be adding several more events throughout the year as we go including lots of Lyric Art Cinema events.

I hope you'll find this year one of our best! Please continue to support us by becoming a member and most of all, enjoy our beautiful newly renovated 89-year-old Lyric Theatre.

Enjoy the show!

OPENING THE HOLIDAY SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

A Night at the Opera
starring Lorrianna Colozzo
Nov. 14th | 7:00pm

An Evening with Clint Black
Nov. 20th & 21st | 8:00pm

Stay warm this holiday season with a little help from The Lyric Theatre as we present some of the hottest singers, songwriters, acrobats, and comedians working today.

It wouldn't be a true holiday season at The Lyric Theatre without a performance from one of the Treasure Coast's most beloved vocalists. This November, don't miss A Night at the Opera starring Lorrianna Colozzo (November 14, 2014; 7:00pm).

Talented soprano and Lyric favorite, Lorrianna Colozzo, is back again. Featuring some of the opera world's most recognized compositions A Night at the Opera is a perfect way to start off The Lyric season. Lorrianna will amaze you with her powerful renditions of classic arias from major opera productions including Madame Butterfly, Barber of Seville, and Carmen. Lorrianna Colozzo is always a Lyric favorite, bringing energy and grace to every performance.

You may remember Lorrianna Colozzo from her performances last season in Home Again for the Holidays, and most recently in The Lyric's presentation of Guys and Dolls In Concert, playing the role of Sarah Brown, where she amazed audiences with her powerful voice and impressive range. This season, she's back again representing the Treasure Coast with style. Lorrianna began singing at the age of 12, studying under the tutelage of Helen Boatwright and Dan Marek of The Mannes School of Music. She continued her studies and graduated from the prestigious Peabody Conservatory of Music at Johns Hopkins. Lorrianna has extensive experience in opera, having performed in a number of operas nationwide, including The Merry Widow, Così fan Tutte, The Cunning Little Vixen, and Falstaff.

For A Night at the Opera, Lorrianna is accompanied by pianist Evan Ferrar. Originally from the Palm Beach area, Ferrar began his musical studies with Dr. Jack Jones. The talented pianist spent ten years in Ireland, working as a singer, coach and chorus master with a number of European companies including the Castleward Opera and the Royal Irish Academy of Music. Ferrar also sings locally with the Palm Beach Opera.

A Night at the Opera's mezzo-soprano is Christina Zimmer, a vocalist with extensive experience in operatic and Broadway productions. Zimmer sang the role of Julie in the 2011 production of Show Boat with Opera Naples, and recently, the talented singer appeared in concert with the Miami Symphony Orchestra. Zimmer received a Master of Music degree from Jacob's School of Music at Indiana University.

Tenor David Pereira was born in New York City. He has appeared in a variety of leading operatic tenor roles, nationally and internationally to great acclaim, most recently as Ernesto in Donizetti's Don Pasquale with Miami Lyric Opera, where he resides as a resident artist. David was part of the prestigious Des Moines Metro Opera Young Artist Apprentice program where he appeared in scenes of Bernstein's Candide as Candide, Count Almaviva in Rossini's Barber of Seville, Alfred in Die Fledermaus and Chevalier de la force in Dialogues of the Carmelites. Throughout his opera career, David has appeared in scenes and roles including Rossini's The Barber of Seville as Almaviva, Donizetti's L'elisir d'amore as Nemorino, Verdi's Falstaff as Fenton, Mozart's Die Zauberflöte as Tamino, Massenet's Manon as Des Grieux, Mozart's Così Fan

Tutte as Ferrando, Bizet's Carmen as Don Jose, Flotow's Martha as Lionel, and special appearances with the most notable South Florida organizations such as the Florida Grand Opera, the Hispanic-American Lyric Theatre, Coral Gables Opera & Chamber Orchestra, La Sociedad Pro Arte Grateli, The Miami Master Chorale, Civic Chorale of South Florida, among many others.

Baritone Graham Fandrei is one of South Florida's most active classical singers, singing with Florida Grand Opera, Seraphic Fire, The Masterchorale of South Florida, Young Patroness of the Opera, Miami Lyric Opera and with arts organizations on both the east and west sides of the state. Mr. Fandrei attended both the New England Conservatory of Music and The Juilliard School. His performance background includes performances in Europe, Asia and he was an original cast member in the Baz Luhrmann production of La Bohème on Broadway. Recently Mr. Fandrei performed in Bach's Ich habe Genug with Miami's Mainly Mozart festival, Bernstein's On the Town with the Klezmer Concert Orchestra, the Brahms Requiem with the Ave Maria University Chorale, and Haydn's Lord Nelson mass with the Symphonic Chorale of Southwest Florida.

District Winner of the Metropolitan National Council, Lorrianna continues to sell out shows and impress audiences, earning her title as one of South Florida's most treasured sopranos. Called "captivating" by the Baltimore Sun, Lorrianna Colozzo will be sure to captivate you this November with her brilliant renditions of opera classics.

We know you've got the tinsel, but do you have the twang? This November, prepare to spend An Evening with Clint Black (November 20 & 21, 2014; 8:00pm) The Lyric is excited to welcome legendary country singer-songwriter, Clint Black, to the stage. With over 100 songs written and 20 million albums sold worldwide, Black has firmly established himself as one of the most successful musicians of all time. Excelling not only as a singer and guitarist, but as a drummer and harmonica player as well, Black is an artist rooted in country music history, but unafraid to explore and transcend genres.

In An Evening with Clint Black, Black will perform many of his most popular country music classics as well as some songs you might not have heard. Through his unique synthesis of traditional country twang and more contemporary pop melodies, Black demonstrates his deep understanding of country music history while asserting its relevance to a modern audience. Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hear country music legend Clint Black perform some of his greatest hits in a remarkably intimate setting.

Beginning his career in the early 1980s, Clint Black was immediately drawn to the traditional style of country music, inspired by major stars such as George Strait and Reba McEntire.

Working part-time as a construction worker and bait cutter while pursuing his music career, Black finally got his break in 1989 with the release of his first album, Killin' Time, featuring some of his most celebrated hits including "Nobody's Home," "Walking Away," and the eponymous "Killin' Time." The first single off of the album, A Better Man, reached the number one spot on the Billboard Hot Country Songs list in June of 1989, making Clint Black the first male solo artist in 14 years with a debut single at the top of the chart. Killin' Time immediately went triple-platinum and is now celebrated as one of the 100 greatest country music albums of all time. Since 1989, Black has continued to have enormous success as an artist, earning over six awards, including CMA Male Vocalist of the Year, and earning a star on Hollywood's Walk of Fame.

In the late 1990s, Clint Black left his original record label to settle down and start a family. However, Black couldn't resist his calling for very long, returning to the music industry only a few years after the birth of his daughter. In 2003, Black founded Equity Music Group, an artist-friendly recording company, and began to help other aspiring young musicians enjoy the same success that he did. Equity Music Group did just that, launching the careers of a number of musical groups, most notably the country vocal ensemble Little Big Town. Aside from his music career, Clint Black has made his mark on a number of other sectors of the entertainment industry from the stage to the big screen. Black has appeared in a number of films, including Maverick, Going Home, and Flicka 2. Clint Black has also appeared on television in the animated series King of the Hill and the primetime reality TV show Celebrity Apprentice. More recently, the country veteran has begun developing a Broadway show celebrating the life of his longtime friend and fellow musician Roy Rogers.

Mediaeval Baebes
Dec. 2nd | 7:00pm

Enjoy a night of thrilling aerial stunts and gymnastic routines when the National Acrobats of the People's Republic of China (December 1, 2014; 5:00pm & 8:00pm) arrive at The Lyric Theatre this December. Straight from Beijing, the National Acrobats of the People's Republic of China are coming to Stuart for an evening of high flying acrobatic entertainment. Founded in 1951, the troupe has become one of the most acclaimed acrobatic groups in all of China, touring in over 500 cities in 70 countries across the world. In Cirque Peking, the National Acrobats of the People's Republic of China will demonstrate some of their most famous acts including "Aerial Bungee Tumbings" and "Global Motorcycling."

The history of the National Acrobats of the People's Republic of China is a very interesting one. Founded during the Cold War, the acrobatic troupe was unwelcome in the United States until 1972, when President Nixon invited the group to the White House. This was a major moment in the history of the relationship between China and the United States, and the company is credited in part with re-establishing diplomatic relations between the two countries at a critical period in history. Now, over four decades later, the National Acrobats are back in the United States for their 2014 North American tour.

Under the direction of Mr. An Ning, the National Acrobats of the People's Republic of China have set themselves apart from the thousands of other acrobat troupes around the world due to their professionalism and tireless innovation. Over the years, more than 200 artists from the acrobatic company have won gold and silver awards at national and international competitions as well as circus festivals. In 2012, five troupes and teams traveled to Turkey, Taiwan, Singapore, and Germany, thrilling audiences of every nationality with their breath-taking original stunts.

The National Acrobats have developed a number of impressive productions, including Mirage, Pirates!, and Sun Birds. This performance, entitled Cirque Peking, is a culmination of over 60 years of practice and dedication to the acrobatic craft. For their North American tour, the company has developed an entirely new production, featuring incredible tricks such as "Chinese Poles in Shaolin Style" and "Diving through Moving Hoops."

This December, discover some of the world's oldest holiday traditions, folklore, and melodies with the Mediaeval Baebes (December 2, 2014; 7:00pm). The all-female vocal group puts a new spin on classic medieval music and poetry, singing in a variety of languages from Middle English to Mediaeval Welsh. Weaving tales of unrequited love and gothic faerieland adventures, the Mediaeval Baebes' hauntingly beautiful melodies explore universal themes while taking you on a fantastic journey through time. Beautiful, talented and witty, the Mediaeval Baebes offer an unforgettable night of Christmas music, performing classics such as "We Three Kings" and "Away in a Manger."

Founded in 1996, the Mediaeval Baebes have turned the classical music genre on its head with their witty interpretations of medieval religious and pagan songs. Founding member Katharine Blake is no music industry novice. The classically-trained vocalist enjoyed previous success as a back-up singer for experimental singer-songwriter Nick Cave and as the lead vocalist for the gothic rock group Miranda Sex Garden. Now, she devotes her time fully to Mediaeval Baebes. The group is unique for their choice to use medieval and romantic texts as source material for many of their songs, setting the texts to original scores composed by the Baebes themselves. The vocal ensemble has released eight studio albums, three of which reached the top of the U.K. classical music charts and the Baebes have performed across the world, playing in all kinds of venues from castles to caves. In 2007, the Mediaeval Baebes received the Ivor Novello Award for Best Television Soundtrack for their contribution to the BBC production of The Virgin Queen.

After 18 years, the Mediaeval Baebes are still gaining momentum. Their latest album, a Christmas carol collection entitled Of Kings and Angels, was released in the U.K. last year. The album reached the top 10 spot of the U.K. classical charts almost immediately upon release. Released this year in the United States, the album is expected to continue to enjoy great success, particularly as the holiday season approaches. The Mediaeval Baebes will be sure to highlight some of their seasonal interpretations from Of Kings and Angels, as well as from their previous 2003 holiday recording Mistletoe and Wine this December.

Next, get in the holiday spirit with A Darlene Love Christmas - 'Love for the Holidays' (December 8, 2014; 7:00pm). In her Lyric debut performance, Darlene Love will ring in the Christmas season in style. Love, with her annual performance of her blockbuster hit “Christmas (Baby Please Come Home)” on the Late Show with David Letterman, has become a holiday staple for national audiences. Rolling Stone magazine ranked “Christmas (Baby Please Come Home)” first on its list of “The Greatest Rock and Roll Christmas Songs, saying that “nobody can match Love’s emotion and sheer vocal power.” Perhaps most famous for her #1 single, “He’s a Rebel,” Darlene Love has dominated the music industry for over 50 years as both a back-up singer and a solo artist. This holiday season, Ms. Love will light up The Lyric stage with her soulful renditions of seasonal favorites.

Called “one of the greatest singers of all time” by the Rolling Stones, Darlene Love began performing as early as high school in an obscure girl-group called The Blossoms. Picked up in 1962 by producing legend Phil Spector, Love quickly became one of the most popular vocalists in the industry, working with some of the greatest performers of the 50s and 60s, including Sam Cooke, Elvis Presley, and Sonny and Cher. Darlene Love’s powerful voice can be heard in many of the biggest hits of the time period, such as The Ronette’s “Be My Baby” and Bobby “Boris” Pickett’s “Monster Mash.”

Darlene Love has also appeared in a number of acting roles on stage and in major motion pictures and television. Love played the role of Danny Glover’s wife in the four Lethal Weapon movies. Additionally, Love performed in the Broadway musicals Grease, Carrie, and Hairspray. The famous vocalist has also appeared numerous times on Late Night with David Letterman, as well as Saturday Night Live. Most recently, Darlene Love was featured in the Academy Award-winning documentary 20 Feet From Stardom, which chronicled the careers of some of the most 1960s and 70s, and ran as part of The Lyric’s most recent Art Cinema Series.

The Rabbi and The Italian
Dec. 10th | 7:00pm

Looking for a little comedic relief this December? Get off your tukkus and come see The Rabbi and The Italian (December 10, 2014; 7:00pm).

Starring Rabbi Bob Alper and legendary stand-up comedian Dick Capri, The Rabbi and The Italian combines all of your favorite Jewish and Italian humor in a clean and family-friendly context. With an incredible 60+ years of combined entertainment experience, Rabbi Bob Alper and Dick Capri are a comedic force to be reckoned with. In The Rabbi and The Italian, the two veteran entertainers bring together two cultures for a night of hilarity perfect for all ages.

An ordained rabbi with a doctorate from Princeton, Bob Alper served congregations for over 14 years before pursuing a career in comedy. Since his break out on the entertainment scene, Alper has performed over 200 shows across the country, impressing audiences with his fast-paced tempo and impeccable timing. Alper has played in some of North America’s most respected comedic venues, including the Montreal Comedy Festival, the Chautauqua Institution in New York, and the Hollywood’s Comedy and Improv Store. Featured on The Today Show, Good Morning America, and CNN, Bob Alper is also the author of three books, including A Rabbi Confesses and his latest release, Thanks, I Needed That. Known for his smart and sophisticated routine, Rabbi Bob Alper has become a favorite in universities, performing arts centers, and comedy clubs across the country.

First gaining international recognition for his 1973 comedy tour with Englebert Humperdinck, Dick Capri has continued to perform sold-out shows every year, keeping audiences laughing with his signature comedic style. Capri has performed in a variety of venues across the world, including Radio City Music Hall, the Minskoff Theater in New York, and the Palladium in London. In addition to his career as a stand-up comedian, Dick Capri has also performed in musical theater and on television. In 1991, Capri made his Broadway debut, performing in the critically-acclaimed run of Catskills On Broadway, which sold out shows for an impressive 14 months in a row. The veteran comedian was also featured on Comedy Central’s popular special, the New York Friars Club Roast in Honor of Drew Carey.

Back again this year is another heart-warming performance of A Peter White Christmas featuring Rick Braun and Mindi Abair (December 12, 2014; 6:00pm & 8:30pm). Peter White is back again with everyone’s favorite holiday show this December, featuring a fusion of jazz, pop, and classical interpretations of Christmas classics. An accomplished session musician with over forty years of experience, Peter White has made a name for himself as one of the most versatile contemporary jazz musicians in the industry. For his memorable holiday special, White appears alongside Rick Braun and Mindi Abair, performing some of the most recognizable and beloved Christmas songs, from “The Little Drummer Boy” to “Greensleeves.”

Interested in music at an early age, Peter White experimented with a number of instruments from the clarinet to the violin

Theatre Box Office and General Information

Hours

Regular Box Office hours are Monday thru Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. We are also open two (2) hours prior to curtain on the day of a performance.

Purchasing Flexibility

For your convenience, you can purchase tickets in several different ways:

- In person at the Box Office
- By phone at 772-286-7827
- Online 24/7 at www.lyrictheatre.com
- By mail to: Lyric Theatre, 59 SW Flagler Ave., Stuart, FL 34994

Attn: Box Office
Please be advised that a $3.00 restoration fee is added to all ticket prices. This supports the preservation and restoration of our historic facility. The Lyric Theatre is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Will Call

Prepaid tickets are available beginning one hour prior to each performance at The Lyric's Will Call Booth in the theater lobby, not at the Box Office. Simply go to the old fashioned ticket booth in the center of the lobby prior to the performance to pick up your tickets.

Paid tickets can also be picked up in advance at any time the Box Office is open, or they can be mailed to you upon your request if there is ample time to do so prior to the performance date.

Gift Certificates

Gift certificates can be purchased in any denomination and are good for any performance held at The Lyric Theatre. They are valid for one year from the date of the purchase. Gift certificates are not transferable, and can only be redeemed by the person(s) for whom they are purchased. They are non-refundable and cannot be redeemed for cash.

Ticketing Policies

The Lyric Theatre has a "No Refund, No Exchange" ticketing policy. At the discretion of management, exceptions may be made. In the event of a returned check, a fee of $35 will apply.

Box Office

Located outside the entrance to The Lyric on Flagler Avenue. We accept American Express, Visa, Discover and MasterCard for phone and online reservations; checks, cash and credit cards at the window. All reserved tickets are available from time of purchase up to one hour before the performance, when they may be picked up at our Will Call Booth in the center of the lobby.

Photography/Recording

The use of any audio or visual recording device is strictly prohibited. Patrons may be asked to leave the Theater.

Cell Phones/Pagers

Please turn off or put personal communication devices on silent mode prior to entering the Theater.

Patrons with Disabilities

Special seating arrangements must be made with the Box Office at the time you purchase tickets, based on availability. Inner lobby restrooms are accessible.

Latecomers

Performances begin at the advertised time. Please allow proper time for parking and collection of tickets. Latecomers will be seated at the discretion of management.

Fire Notice

In case of fire, please walk to the exit nearest your seat.

First Aid

Please see the House Manager.

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited anywhere inside the Theater.

Beverage Service

A full service cash bar is available in the lobby at most events.

Restrooms

Located to the left and right of the Will Call Booth in the center of the lobby.

Lost and Found

Contact the Box Office at 772-286-7827.

Group Sales & Corporate Discounts

Discounts are available for groups and corporations of all sizes. Please contact the Box Office at 772-286-7827 or LyricBoxOffice@LyricTheatre.com for more details.

Customer Service

If you have a suggestion or problem, please contact the Assistant Executive Director at 772-220-1942, ext. 207.

Theater Etiquette

As a courtesy to the performers and other audience members, please do not leave your seat until the end of the act. If for some reason you must leave, please wait for a pause in the program.

before finding his calling in the guitar. White was initially inspired by the early success of major rock groups such as the Beatles and the Rolling Stones and developed a passion for the electric guitar. When an accidental fire destroyed his electric, Peter picked up the acoustic and never looked back. Drawing upon the recordings of James Taylor, Joni Mitchell, and Crosby, Stills & Nash for inspiration, Peter White developed his skills on the acoustic guitar and earned his first professional gig at the age of 19. At the age of 21, White was invited to join folk singer-songwriter Al Stewart's band as a keyboardist during their tour through England, Scotland, and the United States. On this tour, White had the opportunity to open for a number of major artists including Billy Joel, Queen, and Linda Ronstadt. Peter White and Al Stewart's collaboration led to the major hit of 1976 "Year of the Cat."

Joining Peter White for A Peter White Christmas are jazz musicians Rick Braun and Mindi Abair. A multi-instrumentalist and smooth trumpet player, Rick Braun began his career playing as a session musician for several bands. Braun has released over 15 albums in his career, including a Christmas album entitled Swingin' in the Snow. Peter White's long-time collaborator, Mindi Abair, is an accomplished saxophonist and vocalist who has toured with some of the most successful recording artists of all time, including Duran Duran, The Backstreet Boys, and Aerosmith, to name a few. Her latest album, Wild Heart, featured guest recordings by Gregg Allman, Joe Perry, and Booker T. Jones. In A Peter

White Christmas, Abair will be performing some songs from Wild Heart as well as some holiday favorites, such as "Silent Night" and "White Christmas."

In 1990, Peter White broke away from his position in Al Stewart's band as a session guitarist and embarked on his own solo career. White enjoyed immediate success with the release of his first album, Reveille-Vous, which incorporated several unused songs written previously during his collaboration with Stewart. In 1996, Peter White signed on with Columbia Records to produce his next album entitled Caravan of Dreams. With these first two major hit albums, White had made a name for himself in the contemporary jazz scene. Now, with over 13 solo albums to his name, Peter White has just completed his latest album, Here We Go, which marks White's first recording with the legendary saxophonist David Sanborn. As a solo artist, Peter White has toured around the world, appearing in venues from performing arts centers to cozy nightclubs. Inspired by the success of his holiday albums Songs of the Season and A Peter White Christmas, White has designed his very own A Peter White Christmas Tour, featuring the musician's unique takes on traditional holiday tunes.

And finally, The Lyric's Christmas season wouldn't be complete without Merry Bronxmas with The Bronx Wanderers (December 15 & 16, 2014; 6:00pm & 8:30pm). Famous for their charming covers of popular classics and romantic ballads of the 50s and 60s, The Bronx Wanderers will take their talents to a whole new level this holiday season with a brand-new performance featuring your favorite seasonal songs. Don't miss Yo' Vinny and the gang take on Christmas classics from "Jingle Bells" to "Winter Wonderland."

The Bronx Wanderers got their start as a father-son Dion tribute band, later expanding into the five-person vocal group they are today. The Wanderers have wooed audiences around the country with their contemporary interpretations of mid-20th century crooners and doo-wop ensembles, from the Four Seasons to Dion and the Belmonts. Originally featuring Yo' Vinny and his sons, Vinny "the Kid" and Nicky "Stix," The Bronx Wanderers have expanded over the years to include guitarist Jimmy Fracassi and guitarist/saxophonist John Tutino.

More than just your average cover band, The Bronx Wanderers put a new twist on classic oldies, bringing a contemporary flair to your favorite doo-wop hits and more. The Wanderers have covered a variety of hits from nearly every decade, including famous songs by KC & the Sunshine Band, the Bee Gees, and Bob Seger. And they don't stop there! Recently, Yo' Vinny and the gang have brought audiences to their feet with their high energy cover of Coldplay's "Viva La Vida."

In Merry Bronxmas with The Bronx Wanderers, the quintet will bring the same contemporary twist they bring to oldies to Christmas classics. Featuring songs such as "Jingle Bell Rock" and "Run Rudolph Run," the Bronx Wanderers' holiday performance offers a fresh new take on the most beloved seasonal tunes.

The future of Stuart's Historic Showplace is brighter than ever these days and a big reason for this success is . . . YOU!

When you support The Lyric – by becoming a member, buying a sidewalk star, joining the Director's Circle or even sponsoring a show – you play a key role in bringing a diverse and exciting slate of world-renowned artists to the Treasure Coast. Your contribution is vital to underwriting The Lyric's daily operations and keeping ticket prices at popular levels. You're invited to play any of the following roles – or all of them!

BECOME A MEMBER

Becoming a Lyric member is easy and affordable – and it offers big benefits too! For as little as $35, you can enjoy advance notice of upcoming events and have the chance to purchase tickets before the general public. Higher membership levels offer even more privileges.

BE A SIDEWALK "STAR"

Some of our brightest stars have provided $1,000 in underwriting to support the restoration fund for Stuart's Historic Showplace. You'll find these "stars" right under your feet as you arrive at The Lyric! In recognition of your contribution you'll receive a bronze star embedded in the sidewalk at the Theatre's entrance with an inscription of your choice.

SPONSOR A SHOW

Individuals and businesses can literally get their names in lights when they sponsor a Lyric performance! As a show sponsor, you'll receive complimentary tickets with preferred seating and discounts on additional tickets. You may also help to introduce the artist and receive recognition for your sponsorship. Opportunities may also exist for a private "meet and greet" with the performers after the show. Sponsorships are an ideal way to entertain your clients or friends while providing favorable exposure for your business.

BE A DIRECTOR

Should you wish to provide ongoing financial support to the Theatre over a five-year period, you will become an honored member of the Lyric Director's Circle. Your generosity will be recognized through a prominent listing on the Donor Wall in the Theatre lobby as well as a listing in the Lyric magazine. You'll also receive invitations to special events and personalized concierge service at the box office.

WHAT ROLE WILL YOU PLAY AT THE LYRIC?

To become a Lyric Member, call Heather Long today at 772.220.1942, ext. 204 or visit LyricTheatre.com.
 To take part in one of our other great sponsorship opportunities, call the Executive Director's office at 772.220.1942, ext. 208

SUMMER CAMP

DISCOVERY SERIES

ARTIST IN RESIDENCY

FAMILY PROGRAMMING

In this fast-paced digital age of automatons, human interaction seems to be a nostalgic memory of days gone by. Here at The Lyric, the human experience is alive and well! We are on a mission to empower, educate and inspire the leaders of tomorrow, cultivating programs and experiences that address critical themes our youth are faced with in the years ahead.

The Lyric's Awesome! Summer Camp has proven to be a powerful platform to get kids on board with socially responsible behavior. Each session supports a theme, chosen to promote teamwork, problem solving, tolerance, respect and kindness. We celebrate individuality and nurture self-confidence. Every summer we send hundreds of little soldiers back into to the world to defend human rights with a commitment to protect each other and our planet. AND – It's just plain fun! Each day campers rotate to drama, dance and music as well as movie days, outdoor recreation and arts & crafts. What parents are saying...

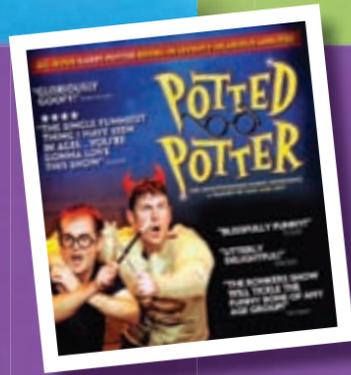

"I highly, and I mean WAY up there highly, recommend this camp! It opens the kids' minds to music, dance, and camaraderie and so much more! That's why it's called AWESOME! EVERY child leaves with confidence and open minds!"

The Discovery Series shows are selected with the educator in mind, with a focus on literature, science, history, ecology conservation, anti-bullying and wellness. Public, private and home schools from Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie and Indian River Counties look forward to their field trips to The Lyric for the wonderfully unique and magical experience that only attending live theatrical productions can offer.

The Lyric Theatre Artist Residency Program continues to play a vital role in a love of the arts. Renowned artists such as Nestor Torres, Terrance Simien and The Spencers have shared their gifts with thousands of Treasure Coast students. This season, Tony Award winning choreographer Savion Glover will visit Port Salerno Elementary for an intensive, up-close and personal exchange with students.

For questions about any of our Education Programs or to find out how you can make a difference in these children's lives by offering your support, call Karin Leone at 772-220-1942, ext. 205. See you at the Theater!

Make it a Family Affair!

Help us ensure our continued commitment to Treasure Coast families, by fostering a love of The Lyric in our future patrons – your children. The Lyric's wholesome Family Programming is a wonderful way spend quality family time. If you haven't checked out The Lyric's Family Programming yet, turn off the cell phone, put down the iPad and check out these shows:
